Profile

Kobe Vinegar

Organizations you are a member of: National Honor Society, student representative on the Trotwood-Madison Board of Education, football (three-year varsity letterman and All-North Division Second Team), tennis team, P.S. Pride Student Mentoring group, student aide.

What do you enjoy the most about attending TMHS? I enjoy student mentoring and supporting our wonderful counseling department with various positive activities.

What is your most memorable high school moment so far? Being inducted into the National Honor Society.

What are your future ambitions? Getting a college degree and a job in my field and to ultimately have a family and be a great dad.

Who's your biggest role model and why? My older sister Kayla Vinegar, a Trotwood-Madison grad, is my biggest role model. She got her bachelor's degree in three years and is currently working on her master's.

What is your favorite academic subject and why? History. I love learning about the past and how it relates to the present and the future.

What famous person would you like to meet and why? Muhammad Ali. I have always admired his style and confidence.

What is your favorite book? "Mr. Klutz is Nuts" It's just downright funny. Still makes me laugh to this day.

What other hobbies do you have? I play the piano and I enjoy mentoring and community service. Over the holidays I went with a group of students to sing Christmas carols and one of the local senior centers. It was great how much the seniors really appreciated us coming out. We had a great time and made some folks smile.

What advice can you give to any incoming freshmen? Get involved and identify and manage your priorities. Time management is essential to your success.

Do you have a motto or theory you live by? Carpe Diem — Latin for seize the day!
